Numb. 5715

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 24. to Tuesday January 27. 1719.

By the Lords Juſtices and Council of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Will. Dublin, Wm. Conolly.

WHereas James Butler, late Duke of Ormond, by Act of Parliament made in Great Britain, ſtands Attainted of High Treaſon; and by an Act of Parliament paſſed in this Kingdom in the Second Year of His Majeſty's Reign, Intituled, An Act for Extinguiſhing the Regalities and Liberties of the County of Tipperary, and Croſs Tipperary, commonly called, the County Palatine of Tipperary, and for Veſting in his Majeſty, the Eſtate of James Butler, commonly called James Duke of Ormond, and for giving a Reward of Ten Thouſand Pounds to any Perſon who ſhall ſeize or ſecure him, in Caſe he ſhall attempt to Land in this Kingdom, It is among other things Enacted, That the Vice Treaſurer or Vice-Treaſurers of this Kingdom, or his or their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, ſhall and are hereby Authorized and Required, out of any Money granted or to be granted by Parliament for the Uſe of the Publick, forthwith to Iſſue and Pay the Sum of Ten Thouſand Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall Seize or Secure, Alive or Dead, the Perſon of the ſaid James Butler late Duke of Ormond, in Caſe he ſhall Land, or attempt to Land, in this Kingdom.

And whereas it hath been ſignified to Us by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, That His Majeſty hath received an Account, that the ſaid James Butler late Duke of Ormond, after a ſhort Stay at Madrid, did imbark from Spain, with Intent to Land in this Kingdom, in order to excite a Rebellion therein.

And whereas it is reaſonable to believe, That the ſaid James Butler late Duke of Ormond is actually Landed, or will ſoon attempt to Land in this Kingdom.

We the Lords Juſtices and Council, to the Intent that all His Majeſty's Subjects may have Notice of the Encouragement given by the ſaid Act of Parliament, and that due Care may be taken for the Seizing and Apprehending of the ſaid James Butler late Duke of Ormond, have thought fit to iſſue this our Proclamation, and do hereby Command all His Majeſty's Officers Civil and Military, and all other His Majeſty's Loving Subjects, to make diligent Search for, and uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to Seize or Secure, Alive or Dead, the ſaid James Butler, late Duke of Ormond, if Landed in this Kingdom, or attempting to Land therein, and when he ſhall be ſo Seized or Secured, to give Notice thereof immediately to the Chief Governour or Governours of this Kingdom for the Time being.

And we do hereby further Declare, That in Caſe the ſaid James Butler, late Duke of Ormond, ſhall be Seized or Secured as aforeſaid, that the neceſſary Orders ſhall be given for the immediate Payment of the ſaid Sum of Ten Thouſand Pounds directed by the ſaid Act of Parliament, to be Paid as aforeſaid, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſo Seize or Secure him.

And we do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all His Majeſty's loving Subjects, that they do in no wiſe knowingly receive, harbour, comfort, relieve, aid or conceal the ſaid James Butler late Duke of Ormond, and in Caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be found to offend therein, we do hereby publiſh and declare, that ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be proceeded againſt as Perſons guilty of High Treaſon.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin, the Nineteenth Day of January, 1718.

Edw. Tuam, Ferrard, C. S. Mountjoy, Tyrawly, Newtown, Tulla Moore, Southwell, Wm. Whitſhed, Joh. Forſter, Jeff. Gilbert, Frederick Hamilton, Ben. Parry, James Tynte, Richard Tighe.

God ſave the KING.

Hague, Jan. 31. This Morning the States General came to a Reſolution to enter into the Quadruple Alliance, without any Debate; and the neceſſary Orders for ſigning the Treaty at London, will be ſent to M. van Borſele without Delay. This Morning the Marqueſs de Beretti Landi notified to M. Nordwyck, the Preſident for the Week of the Aſſembly of the States General, that he had Orders to declare to their High Mightineſſes, in the Name of the King his Maſter, that if the Prince of Cellamare had engaged in any Conſpiracy for exciting a Rebellion in France, as was laid to his Charge, it was abſolutely without his Catholick Majeſty's Knowledge, and without any Inſtruction from him. After the Letters of that Prince and of Cardinal Alberoni which have been intercepted, and the Manifeſto lately publiſhed in the King of Spain's Name, ſuch a Declaration